

DOING THE
MOST GOOD®

8TH ANNUAL FREE EASTER BREAKFAST

The Salvation Army is hosting Easter breakfast to the public

TUCSON, Ariz. (March 28th, 2018) – The Salvation Army will be hosting the 8th annual community free Easter breakfast at the Hospitality House. This volunteer and donation driven event will feed families and individuals in the Tucson community. In addition to a delicious breakfast we will provide musical entertainment and Easter baskets for the children.

When: Saturday, March 31st
10:00am - 11:30am

Where: Salvation Army Tucson Hospitality House
1002 N Main Ave.

“In our 8th year serving Easter breakfast, we are reminded of how grateful we are to serve a community who supports our mission,” said Major Dawn Rocheleau, Director Special Services Tucson Metro. “We encourage everyone to come by and enjoy Easter breakfast.”

We are requesting donations from the Tucson community to help us feed those in need this Easter. Items needed: hams, eggs, hash browns, fruit, milk, orange juice, apple juice, pastries, and Easter baskets.

For more information about the Easter meal, please contact The Hospitality House at (520) 795-9671 or visit our website: www.salvationarmytucson.org/easter

About The Salvation Army

The Salvation Army, established in London in 1865, has been supporting those in need in His name without discrimination for more than 130 years in the United States. Approximately 24.2 million Americans receive assistance from The Salvation Army each year through a range of social services: food for the hungry, relief for disaster victims, assistance for the disabled, outreach to the elderly and ill, clothing and shelter for the homeless, and opportunities for underprivileged children. Around 81 cents of every dollar donated to The Salvation Army are used to support those services in 5,000 communities nationwide. The Salvation Army tracks the level of need across the country with the Human Needs Index (HumanNeedsIndex.org). To find out more, visit SalvationArmyTucson.org

Contact:

Corey Leith
Public Relations Director
The Salvation Army Tucson

Office (520) 448-5494

corey.leith@usw.salvationarmy.org