SUMMER DAY CAMP

The Salvation Army is providing an affordable summer program for children in Tucson.

TUCSON, Ariz. (May 18th, 2018) – Looking for a program that will keep your child engaged and active during the summer? The Salvation Army is now enrolling children into their Summer Day Camp program at three of their corps in Tucson. Summer Day Camp daily activities include crafts, games, music, outdoor activities, and much more. Children will have the opportunity to go on many field trips and maintain their academic skills throughout summer.

The Salvation Army is providing children ages 5-13 years with a safe environment during the day throughout the summer months. The program costs $50 a week per first child and any additional children will be $30 a week. More than 200 volunteers will dedicate their summer in helping our program succeed again for another year.

When & Where:

Temple/Korean Corps (1001 N. Richey Blvd): M-Fri 830am-330pm

About The Salvation Army

The Salvation Army, established in London in 1865, has been supporting those in need in His name without discrimination for more than 130 years in the United States. Approximately 24.2 million Americans receive assistance from The Salvation Army each year through a range of social services: food for the hungry, relief for disaster victims, assistance for the disabled, outreach to the elderly and ill, clothing and shelter for the homeless, and opportunities for underprivileged children. Around 81 cents of every dollar donated to The Salvation Army are used to support those services in 5,000 communities nationwide. The Salvation Army tracks the level of need across the country with the Human Needs Index (HumanNeedsIndex.org). To find out more, visit SalvationArmyTucson.org
